Dialogue 9

Bob: Where did John go?

Lara: He went to the drugstore. (Pause)

Bob: To the bookstore?

Lara: No, I said he went to the drugstore.

Bob: Oh, I misunderstood you. I thought you said bookstore.

Lara: How could you make a mistake like that? Weren't you paying attention?

Dialogue 10

Jone: Say, Joe, do you play bridge?

Joe: No, I don't play any card games.

But I know how to play chess.

How about you, George?

Jone: Well, I happen to be one of the best players around.

Joe: O.K. Let's play, then. We'll see who's the be

Dialogue 11

Jane: I hear you've been ill.

Chacha: Well, I had the flu for a couple of weeks, but I'm fine now.

Jane: You're looking well. By the way, did you hear about Mrs. Jackson?

Chacha: No, What about her?

Jane: She had such a bad case of the flu that they had to take her to the hospital.

Chacha: Oh, I'm sorry to hear that!

Dialogue 12

Sports

Fil: Say, what's your favorite sport?

Jack: Hmmm... it's hard to say. I like golf a lot— but I guess I like tennis better.

Fil: Do you play much tennis?

Jack: Yes, quite a bit. How about a game sometime?

Fil: Sorry. I'm strictly a spectator— football, baseball, basketball, golf...I watch them all.

Dialogue 13

Asking Direction

Street noises

Mucy: Excuse Me. Could you tell me which way Dobson's bookstore is?

Nancy: Yes, it's that way. You go two blocks, then turn left. It's on the corner opposite the post office.

Mucy: Thanks I've only been in town a few days, so I really don't know my way around yet.

Nancy: Oh, I know how you feel. We moved here a year ago, and I still don't know where everything is.

Dialogue 14

Coincidence

Aonny: Haven't I seen you somewhere before?

Julia: No, I don't think so.

Aonny: But your face is so familiar. Wait a second...I know... We were on the same flight to New York last month.

Julia: Oh, yes. Now I remember. What a coincidence to meet in San Francisco!

Aonny: Well, you know what they say—it's a small world

Dialogue 15

Taking A Vacation

David: Did you say you're going to take a vacation next month?

Ruck: Yes, my family and I are going to New York for a week. We want to visit the museums and see some plays.

David: I envy you. I haven't had a vacation for a long time. I wish I could get away for a while.

Ruck: You can take a vacation sometime soon, can't you?

David: No, there's too much work to do. Maybe next year, though.

Dialogue 17

Weather

(Wind noises)

Kenny: Brrrr! I'm cold. I thought it was supposed to get warmer today.

Ed: Yeah, I thought so, too. That's what the weatherman said.

Kenny: It must be the wind that makes it so cold. I'm freezing!

Ed: Me, too. Let's go inside.

Kenny: O.K. It's no fun standing out here, even if the sun is shining

Dialogue 18

Having Things Done

Steve: Excuse me. I wonder if you can help me.

Mike: Sure. What is it?

Steve: I want to have my hair cut, but I can't find a barber shop.

Mike: I know where one is. Come on—
ANYBODY CAN SPEAK
I'll show you.

Dialogue 19

Shopping

Saleslady: Can I help you?

Kenny: Yes, I'm looking for a pair of white gloves. I think I wear size six.

Saleslady: The white gloves are on this counter. Let's see... here's a size six. These are very nice, and they're washable, too.

Kenny: Oh, I'll try them on. Hmmm... they seem to fit. How much are they?

Saleslady: Five dollars.

Kenny: All right. I'll take them.

Saleslady: That'll be five-twenty with the tax.

Dialogue 20

Transportation

(Street noise)

Joy: Shall we take a taxi or a bus to the meeting?

Bill: We'd better take a bus. It's almost impossible to find a taxi during rush hour.

Joy: Isn't that a bus stop over there?

Bill: Yes... Oh, oh! There's a bus now. We'll have to run to catch it.

Joy: O.K.... Oh, no! We just missed it.

Bill: Never mind. There'll be another one in ten minutes.
