

Sentence pattern

- the most common sentence pattern is subject and verb (SV).
- the subject comes before verb.

a) Subject

b) Verb

Subject

– subject comes in the beginning of the sentence.

- a subject can be a Noun or Pronoun
- it names whom or what the sentence is about.
- a subject does the action.

Example:

Hari is reading.

She sings.

Verb

- a verb can be an action verb (action done by the subject) or a linking verb (connects the subject of the verb)
- verbs are words that show what the subject does, says, has or is.

Example:

Grandpa is listening.

We cooked.
